

23 января 2020

KORUS Consulting wins Best Reseller EMEA Award from LLamasoft

KORUS Consulting received the LLamasoft 2019 EMEA Reseller Of The Year. The award is a recognition of excellent results in the current year, a large sales of vendor licenses and team`s professionalism on large projects.

KORUS Consulting was awarded LLamasoft 2019 EMEA Reseller of the Year for its excellent results in the development of LLamasoft supply chain optimization solutions in Russia and CIS states. The vendor confirmed competence of its partner in creating SCD-systems on the LLamasoft supply chain platform.

In 2019, the KORUS Consulting team completed several large and unique projects using LLamasoft technology in production, logistics, retail, oil and gas industry.

« KORUS Consulting continues to demonstrate high standards in solutions creation and support for supply chain optimization and planning in the Russian and international markets. We are pleased to note the success of our strategic partner and its desire to create new technological solutions that help business to improve the level of service and reduce financial risks in logistics», says Dominic Reid, Director of Partners and Alliances at LLamasoft, Inc.

«We became the best reseller for the second time, and this is an important confirmation of our team`s merits in promoting LLamasoft solutions in Russia. First of all, the award means that we are moving in the right direction in solving complex supply delivery problems of our customers and achieve important results for business. We reduce costs of supply chains and organize effective logistics processes», says Dmitry Krasilov, Head of Supply Chain Planning and Modeling at KORUS Consulting.

